SHERIFF EDWARD N. BONNER RELEASES THE FOLLOWING:

The Placer County Sheriff's Office arrested a Merced man believed to be responsible for numerous burglaries in the North Lake Tahoe area.

Jason Woodral, 35, was booked at the Placer County Jail Wednesday on eight counts of burglary. Early Wednesday, deputies from the sheriff's North Lake Tahoe station responded to the Kings Beach Laundromat for a reported burglary in progress. The subject fled but was caught in a residential area of Kings Beach. He was arrested with the assistance of Placer County Probation officers, who were on the lookout for him.

Further investigation revealed that Woodral was responsible for numerous burglaries at local businesses in Kings Beach, including the Kings Beach Laundromat, the Kings Beach Car Wash, the Tahoe Cutting Company and the Tahoe Pilates Studio.

Woodral also had an outstanding arrest warrant stemming from a burglary committed in Merced in 2009. He is currently being held on $200,000 bail.
